Dear Parents,

I am writing to inform you of the up-coming World Book Day. This year, World Book Day falls on Wednesday 1st March. During the day, the children will be celebrating their love of reading, as well as completing activities related to a book and author. As part of the day, the children are welcome to come to school dressed as their favourite book character or author to help celebrate! Please don't feel obliged to spend lots of money on new fancy dress clothes, just things at home are absolutely fine – I know how expensive it can be!

Thank you for your continued support with reading at home. It really is invaluable that children are exposed to a range of different authors, genres and stories to support with their understanding as well as their writing ability.

Look out for further information in the summer term, we are going to be holding our own Scholastic Book Fayre where you will be able to purchase new books for using at home!

Yours Sincerely,

Miss Blakeley
