

Curriculum Statement

Intent What are our curriculum aims ?	Implementation What do we provide in order to achieve the curriculum aims ?	Impact How successful are we in achieving our curriculum aims ?
To provide quality learning experiences across all subjects and areas. To cover a broad and balanced range of subjects and areas which are suitable for all pupils in a meaningful and purposeful way through inspiring themes and topics. To plan for and include lifelong experiences beyond the classroom including visits and visitors. To acknowledge and celebrate current national events and those relevant to the area in which our children live and the community we serve. To ensure that our children are suitably equipped for their future lives in this community. To develop the core areas of reading, writing and maths and provide children with suitably challenging opportunities to demonstrate their ability to apply skills across a range of subjects and areas. To develop an appreciation and have respect for people of different faiths and cultures. To celebrate British values and understand how these values relate to individuals and our school.	Learning experiences centered round and structured towards real purposes or outcomes. Consistent structure across school through a series of challenges linked to topics, via questions and sub-questions Opportunities for learning based on developing knowledge and skills across all subjects. Learning through a cross curricular approach with an overall theme and aim. Frequent and high quality opportunities for children to apply knowledge and skills. Opportunities for children to take responsibility for decisions, work in teams and independently. Opportunities for parents/carers/ friends of the school and the wider school environment to engage with the curriculum and contribute in a variety of ways. Opportunities to incorporate enterprise projects based around buying, selling and making a profit. Enrichment opportunities such as trips, visits and visitors to enhance learning and make it real. Frequent opportunities for challenging learning which is exciting, engaging and fun.	Our children are enthusiastic about their learning, resilient to differentiated challenges and creative in helping to contribute to the overall curriculum design. Our children are well behaved, courteous, polite and respectful both at school and during extra curricular / enrichment activities. Our children are making excellent progress in a range of areas year on year as documented and evidenced in the planning and assessment books. Our thematic books show beautifully presented work linked to a wide range of areas including the core subjects of reading, writing and maths. Our discrete Science, RE and French books show excellent progress in skills. Our parents, carers and friends of the school contribute to their children's learning by supporting homework tasks and attending regular planned sessions in school. Our teachers have consistently high expectations of the children. Teachers are knowledgeable about our curriculum design and rationale and skillful in planning purposeful learning experiences. Our learning opportunities support and acknowledge current themes and support local events and issues happening in our community. Our staff are all committed to regular self evaluation of curriculum provision through termly reviews.